The Board of Trustees approved the Western Illinois University Fiscal Year 2024 All Funds Budget by source of funds and estimated object of expenditure on October 13, 2023 (see Western Illinois University Board of Trustees Resolution No. 23.10/1). Per Board approval, Western Illinois University is authorized to spend up to $209.9 million during Fiscal Year 2024, and the President is authorized to make technical adjustments in budgets if necessary.

Following the approval of institutional spending plans, the Western Illinois University Board of Trustees shall receive quarterly revenue and expenditure reports to review the University's financial status and compliance with institutional spending plans. To be clear, concise, and transparent, the financials have been revised to a single chart that includes all sources of revenues and expenditures. Pursuant to its responsibilities as set forth in the Debt Compliance and Management Policy (the “Policy”) adopted by Western Illinois University (“WIU”), on June 12, 2015, the Compliance Committee has conducted the annual review required by the Policy and has prepared this report to determine whether Debt (as defined in the Policy) complies with covenants and other ongoing requirements applicable to each issue of Debt. The following sets forth a summary demonstrating WIU’s compliance with such covenants and requirements.

Report No. 24.3/4 -- Financial Aid Report

The Financial Aid Office assists eligible students in meeting educational expenses while attending Western Illinois University. Assistance is provided through grants, scholarships, loans and student employment.

The mission of the Western Illinois University Office of Financial Aid is to provide all students and their families with resources for success through efficient and timely customer service, equitable disbursement of financial awards, and educational programming related to financial literacy. Through these actions, we aim to maintain a positive environment that will help create opportunities for equal access to post-secondary education and increase student retention.

Completing a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is one of the most important steps on the road to college. The FAFSA is the gateway to more than $150 billion in college grants, work-study funds, and federal student loans, as well as certain state-based aid. It is important that students do not assume they are not eligible for financial aid and complete the FAFSA annually. Students who did not file a FAFSA in 2022 left an estimated $3.6 billion in Pell Grants on the table.

Financial Aid Optimization Committee

The Financial Aid Optimization Committee met for the first time May 2022. The Committee began by attempting to identify the discount rate/net tuition revenue for first-time, full-time students. After calculating these we began reducing the discount rate and increasing net tuition revenue by trying to reduce expenditures in our institutional scholarships. Institutional scholarships are awarded upon acceptance to Western Illinois University. To continue this work beyond our original cohort, we partnered with Ruffalo Noel Levitz to determine a strategic financial aid optimization plan that would provide a strategic discount rate to attract students for retention/graduation while increasing net tuition revenue.

Below is a comprehensive list of internal processes that were implemented in Fall 2023 upon the recommendation of the Financial Aid Optimization Committee and approved by the Financial Sustainability Committee:

- All students receiving institutional aid are required to file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or Alternative Application for State Aid. International students are excluded.
- Institutional aid will cover institutional direct costs (i.e. tuition, fees, books, etc.). Institutional aid will have no cash value and is subject to the availability of funding.
- Defined an order of pay that will utilize funds strategically to reduce institutional expenditures.

- Eliminated the Leatherneck Visitor, Chicago/St. Louis Scholarship, Principal Scholarship and Illinois State Scholar Scholarship 2023-24.
- Eliminated the Leatherneck Book Award, Justice Inclusion, Diversity and Equity (JIDE) Scholarship, Reduced the Alumni Legacy Scholarship, and reworked the Western Commitment Scholarship to combine with the State of Illinois AIM High Grant for the 2024-25 academic year.
- Applied a higher GPA for students to renew Western Commitment Scholarship.
- Applied an admissions deadline for new freshmen/transfers to receive institutional aid.
- Set a registration deadline for new freshmen/transfers to receive institutional aid.
- Students who withdraw from the University will have institutional aid prorated (re-calculated) based on the percentage of the term completed.

Ninety-six (96) percent of WIU students receive some form of financial aid (including loans).

Cohort Default Rate

The cohort default rate represents student borrowers who entered repayment from October 1 to September 30 and defaulted on federal direct loans. Default is defined as more than 270 days delinquent. During the loan payment pause, these numbers have decreased significantly, but students will enter repayment again and it is imperative that we monitor and have a plan in place to address rising default rates. Institutions with higher cohort defaults can face sanctions by the Department of Education including but not limited to loss of federal student aid eligibility.

Center for Global Studies

In December Graduation, 188 international students from 11 countries graduated. Almost 250 international students, the largest class in history, are scheduled to graduate in May from 18 countries; further 20 – 30 students should complete their degrees in August. It adds up to approximately 430-460 international students leaving the way we want it to happen---via graduation. Retention remains at a high level. In January we enrolled 90 new students; in August, I anticipate 200-225 new students. Our overall numbers, now at 820, should be at or about 750 in fall---still 12% of anticipated overall enrollment.

We can recover smartly with significantly lower cost of operations for the 24/25 school year. Revenues have increased with the requirement of mandatory first semester payment for newly arrived students; and almost $400K was saved on agent commissions relative to last year. Recruitment is in high drive.

Our attrition is minimal; our undergraduate students are setting the academic standard on campus; and our student services and international organizations are thriving. We are accomplishing all of this with only the AVP and one administrator, resulting in a low-cost operation.

Outreach is in the process of setting up several camps for students in the community. We are also exploring the possibility of collaborations with outside groups wanting specialized services on campus.

Study abroad is successfully executing the various faculty lead and partner driven programs; we are always exploring other possibilities and sites.

Illinois Law Enforcement Training & Standards Board

Founded in 1992, the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board (ILETSB) Executive Institute provides knowledge and technical assistance to criminal justice practitioners throughout the State of Illinois, and is dedicated to developing leaders in the law enforcement community. Having been located on the campus of Western Illinois University since its inception, the organization helps add institutional distinctiveness to the University as we are one of the few Peace Officer Standards and Training executive institutions in the country. As stewards of state resources, the Executive Institute continues to invest in strategic programs that deliver value and provide participants with academically-based knowledge and best practices. Core curriculum, workshops, seminars and executive summits are designed with fiscal responsibility not only for the Executive Institute, but also for those we serve.

This quarter's contributions to the University community:

- The Executive Institute, one of the leading non-academic departments on campus, is currently managing fifty active grants this fiscal year.
 - Just recently, the Office of the Attorney General of Illinois was awarded a grant for a 48-month project to provide specialized training to law enforcement officers and prosecuting attorneys in the 102 counties in Illinois. The ILETSB Executive Institute will be a partner on the grant, and will be producing a three to four-hour training on identifying, reporting, and responding to hate crimes and bias incidents for law enforcement.
- At every conference and training, the ILETSB Executive Institute either promotes WIU by means of promotional materials/flyers, verbal acknowledgement of WIU alumni in attendance, and collaborative efforts with LEJA, Psychology Department, Social Work Department, Management and Marketing Department, Philosophy Department, etc. Our name/branding is strongly associated with Western Illinois University, which further promotes recruitment/retention initiatives for the University.
- The Executive Institute promotes experiential learning through applied studies in external settings. These applied settings include internships, graduate assistant positions, and practicum students. We partnered with the School of Law Enforcement and Justice Administration to support the internship of an undergraduate student in the spring semester. Graduate assistant positions are also filled within the Executive Institute: one (1) LEJA, (1) Psychology department, and (1) Applied Statistics and Decision Analytics. The Executive Institute provides opportunities for student development and learning outside the classroom through involvement, leadership, and co-curricular experiences in environments that are supportive, challenging, and inclusive. We continue to support articles authored by interns and practicum students in our weekly newsletter. Additionally, the Executive Institute provides professional development to all practicum and intern students through attendance and participation at conferences and meetings.
- The Executive Institute has been mentoring the WIU campus organization "Minorities in Blue," an organization that serves a wide variety of students who wish to pursue a career in the law enforcement field. Additionally, MIB seeks to encourage women and minorities to join the field. This purpose is accomplished through the organization seeking to motivate, enhance, and empower a diverse population of students to become leaders in the Law Enforcement and Justice Administration field by inspiring them to not only become entry-level professionals but also to lead organizations as executives and administrators.
 - Arranged for two presenters for the organization, one being from the FBI Springfield Office and the second one being from the Criminal Enforcement Division of the Office of the Illinois Attorney General – Chicago.
 - According to Bureau Chief of the Law Enforcement Training Division of the Office of the Illinois Attorney General's Office: "What a GREAT group of students! I never know what to expect with college kids and these people were a treat! They were engaging and thoughtful. They asked great questions and had very positive energy. I really enjoyed my time with them and would love to help support this group any way I can! I am so happy to see such a varied group of people actively seeking out careers in community service.”

- Since the meeting in late February 2024, several MIB students have reached out inquiring about internships and other opportunities with the Office of the Illinois Attorney General, to which Director Heather Hotz has made connections to the appropriate personnel to assist the WIU students.

- Supported the fall fundraiser for the organization.
- Sponsoring three members to attend the Women in Criminal Justice Conference in April, free of charge. We will also be highlighting the group on the day one luncheon, where the President of the organization will discuss the MIB group at WIU. Also, Director Hotz is providing the group with a table to share information/make connections and highlight their spring fundraiser.
- The Executive Institute manages the Emergency Operations Center grant on behalf of the University. Staff continues to attend EOC project meetings with LEJA, McDonough County ESDA, Facilities Management, and Sponsored Projects.
- Continue to support research projects with Department of Psychology at Western Illinois University, as well as the Professional Research Pool for Criminal Justice Science (www.prpforcjscience.org).
- Director Hotz worked with Dr. Stu Yager, Professor of the Educational Leadership program at Western Illinois University, to help rewrite the instructional design course for the Online Learning Network.
- The Executive Institute offers three primary ILETSB-certified courses targeting various levels of leadership in Illinois’ law enforcement community. With a blended faculty of innovative criminal justice academics and practitioners from throughout the United States, and classes reflecting a broad spectrum of experience, professional disciplines and geographic distribution, these programs provide an exceptional and widely respected educational experience. Staff collaborated with the School of Law Enforcement and Justice Administration at Western Illinois University to offer undergraduate and graduate academic credit for core curriculum courses. An articulation agreement was reached and registrants may apply for up to six hours of academic credit.

- The ILESTB Executive Institute continues to utilize WIU faculty in our programming, which most recently included: Philosophy, LEJA, Business, etc.
- Barend Wurth, our Program Coordinator in the Education and Training division, is a competitive age group triathlete who has competed in more than twenty full Ironman distance triathlons. In 2023, he qualified for the world championship in his age group. Last year, Barend started training and coaching WIU's Director of Bands, Dr. Mike Fansler. As the WIU age group Triathlon Team, they competed in the Chicago Triathlon, where Dr. Fansler set a "personal best" and Barend made third place. They will compete in the Ironman 70.3 Des Moines on June 9 and one or more races later in the year.
 - Additionally, Barend started as an adjunct professor in the Kinesiology Department this spring semester. He teaches the course PETE235 -Aquatics in the PE Teacher Program. This course teaches students various swimming skills and to experience and understand contemporary aquatic skills and safety issues suitable for instructing PK12 learners to participate in aquatic activities throughout their lifetime.

Office of Sponsored Projects

The Office of Sponsored Projects continues to assist faculty and staff pursue external funding to support their scholarly endeavors as well as to support the mission of the university. The office was an anomaly and had very seasoned staff until recently. Currently, the office is down two FTEs, of six total, and absent the director the most seasoned person has less than two years' experience. We are in the process of filling one of the open positions as we cannot adequately serve the faculty and staff and maintain compliance with the myriad of federal and state regulations at our current levels. Despite being short staffed the office has had several accomplishments outside of our normal activities:

Kari Woodrum, Pre-Award Specialist, wrote an article "Call Me Coach! Pre-Award Research Administration at a Small Predominately Undergraduate Institution" which was published in the December 2023 edition of the NCURA (National Council of University Research Administrators) Magazine.

Kari Woodrum co-authored "Proposal Resubmission – The First Step to Success is Overcoming Rejection" for the NCURA Sponsored Research Administrators Guide, a subscription-based resource. The article was based on a previous presentation at an NCURA conference. The other authors were Dr. Kris Monahan, Senior Director of Sponsored Projects and Research Compliance at Providence College, and Roger Wareham, Director of Grants and Research at University of Wisconsin-Green Bay.

Trent Gentry joined WIU in October as our Compliance Specialist. He is responsible for all human and animal subject research as well as export control, intellectual property, biosafety and responsible conduct of research. In December Trent attended a Public Responsibility in Medicine and Research (PRIM&R) conference and one day IRB workshop. He has hit the ground running and is a great addition to the OSP staff.

Shannon Sutton was lead faculty for the four half-day virtual Level 1: Fundamentals of Sponsored Projects Administration for NCURA in November 2023. There were 82 participants and three presenters.

Shannon completed her two-year role as Vice Chair/Chair for the NCURA Nominating & Leadership Development Committee in December 2023. The position is elected by the Board of Directors and the committee is responsible for leadership, elections, awards, and the new Emerging Leaders program for the association.

Shannon wrote and submitted a Support for Research Excellence (SuRE) grant for $50,000 from the National Institutes of Health (NIH) which, if funded, would support training and educational opportunities for the WIU OSP staff.

Shannon was a panelist at the National Science Foundation Growing Research Access for Nationally Transformative Equity and Diversity (NSF GRANTED) conference held February 7-8, 2024 in Fort Worth, Texas. The GRANTED conference was to focus on addressing systemic barriers within the nation's research enterprise by improving research support and service capacity.

Fall 2023-to-Spring 2024 Retention Details

As expected, the impact of the newly implemented 0.0 GPA policy is seen in our fall-to-spring retention rate for first-time full-time freshmen. The implementation of this policy led to 62 students being academically dismissed. Over 90% of the impacted students had one or more interactions with our Student Development and Success Center, Outreach and Student Support Team, Student Rights and Responsibilities, or Office of Public Safety. Of this population, 83.3% were identified as medium or high concern through our fall 2023 Connections Mapping Program.

Full-time and part-time transfer student fall-to-spring retention improved. Our transfer student population uses resources like EdSights, offering the Rocky-Bot, with a 95% opt-in rate and 62% actively engaged with the program.

As we look to purposefully shape the incoming freshman class to ensure the best student support possible, we are limiting the number of first-year students who will be served in our Reach program for fall 2024. Students in our alternative admission program deserve and require additional support from campus resources and academic advising. This decision means we are admitting fewer students to be considered for the Reach program, leading to our declining admit numbers. Given limited resources, this purposeful decision will help ensure we admit the correct number of students we can support.

Delays in the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) processing are being felt nationwide and will affect our traditional enrollment timeline. To support students in having time to make well-informed decisions on all of their college options, Western Illinois University has extended our priority deadline for applications to be considered for institutional aid to May 15th. We have also adjusted our new student onboarding programming to ensure students have options for orientation sessions later in the summer.

Regarding institutional aid, we have refreshed the former Western Commitment Scholarship to assist overall university expenditures, following guidance and insight from Ruffalo Noel Levitz. Award levels and criteria have been updated. Students entering WIU in fall 2024 with a 4.0 or above will receive up to $7,000 annually, 3.5-3.99 will receive up to $5,000, and 3.0-3.49 will receive up to $3,000. Renewal requirements have been updated, requiring all students to earn at least a 3.0 GPA to maintain their scholarship. We have also married AIM High funding from the State of Illinois to the Western Commitment Scholarship Program, creating the AIM High Western Commitment Scholarship; this adjustment allows us to leverage state funding to recruit and retain students with financial need while reducing overall institutional aid.

Last week, we introduced the Western Way Program. Incoming new students meeting eligibility and renewal requirements are guaranteed to have their tuition costs and mandatory fees covered. For freshmen, the award will cover eight consecutive semesters, and for transfers, it will cover four consecutive semesters.

Enrollment Initiatives and Actions

We continue implementing and retooling new initiatives, approaches, and tactics to improve overall enrollment by focusing on new student recruitment and retention efforts.

Student Recruitment

- Undergraduate Admissions continues one prong of a recruitment strategy by focusing on local students in the Macomb campus area. In progress is a series of emails, postcards, and press releases featuring local students, culminating with yard signs to allow students to display pride in being a Leatherneck. This campaign is for fall 2024 admitted students.
- Western Illinois University will launch a new focused effort on students who have withdrawn and not completed their degree.
 - In collaboration with our Advancement Team and through support from a generous donor, WIU will launch the Finish Line Program to offer financial assistance to former students with 90 or more credit hours who have not achieved their bachelor's degree to return and complete their degrees. Our initial list has over 1,000 former students we plan to target.
 - WIU will partner with Motimatic to target over 2,500 students who have stopped attending in hopes of strongly encouraging them to return to WIU.
 - The Office of the Registrar, Undergraduate Admissions, Billing and Receivables, New Student and Family Programs, Financial Aid, University Marketing, and the team in the Bachelor of General Studies (BGS) program have teamed up to focus on reducing barriers, streamlining the process of returning to WIU, and building up support for students once they return.
- To support students during the federal FAFSA delay, Admissions Counselors Kate Romanaggi and Taylor Fieterer created a video tutorial for students/parents/caregivers to walk them through using the Net Price Calculator. The Calculator allows students to get an estimate of their financial aid award at Western. The video is being used as part of a campaign to inform students about the availability of the Net Price Calculator and provide cost information to students.
- The Office of Undergraduate Admissions will offer focused training sessions to develop volunteer faculty and staff interested in assisting undergraduate recruitment efforts. This focus will ensure that Western Illinois University can attend various recruitment events and activities when the Undergraduate Admissions team is already booked for other events, initiatives, and activities.
- The Office of Undergraduate Admissions is leading the development of transfer plans and agreements with partner community colleges and other WIU campus partners. Among the agreements are Elementary & Early Childhood Education with Black Hawk College, Agriculture options and Elementary Education & Early Childhood at Sauk Valley Community College, Music Business at Elgin Community College, Math, Chemistry, Physics & Biology Secondary Education at Eastern Iowa Community College and Agricultural Business at Southwestern Illinois College. Over 100 individual transfer guides have been created this academic year upon student requests specific to their community college and major. These initiatives continue to be led by Associate Director of Admissions and Director of Transfer Services Kassie Daly.

- In collaboration with Spoon River College, Western Illinois University has entered the Aspen Transfer Intensive Experience, a yearlong guided focus on enhancing the transfer student experience between institutions. At the end of the year, both institutions will have a completed Strategic Transfer Excellence Plan (STEP), which can be applied to other institutional partnerships in the future. WIU's team is composed of faculty and staff throughout the institution, focused on improving the transfer student experience.
- To continue supporting a broad application pool, Undergraduate Admissions is participating in the Common App direct admission initiative to inform students meeting our admissions criteria that they will be admitted if they apply. Doug Freed, Director of Undergraduate Admissions, and Ries Wynn-Foster, Associate Director of Admissions, lead this initiative.

Student Success and Retention Efforts

- With financial support from the Chicago College Compact, our Outreach and Retention Office has implemented an incentive program to encourage positive academic behavior among our current first-year students who are alums of Chicago public schools. This focus allows students to earn micro-financial support throughout the semester for completing tasks like meeting with their instructors, adding tutoring, etc. Jackie Price, Director of Student Outreach and Support, leads this initiative.
- The Division of Student Success, along with representatives from Academic Affairs, has created a small team to work with McAlister and Quinn on developing a TRIO Student Support Services (SSS) Grant. The team is collecting data and completing the initial project assessment with McAlister and Quinn to assess WIU's readiness and ability to compete in the grant process. Our Interim Director of Institutional Research and Planning, Dr. Christopher Pynes, and the team have been vital in securing the needed data points and advancing our application.
- To continue to support student connection, involvement, and activities, Fraternity and Sorority Life within the Office of Student Engagement is working with student leadership from our Black Greek Letter Organizations on the redevelopment and implementation of a National Pan-Hellenic Council here at Western Illinois University. Assistant Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life, Taylor Duncan, and Associate Director of the Multicultural Center, LeRon Williams, collaborate to advance this initiative.

- With support from the WIU Foundation, Western Illinois University will again offer a summer bridge experience for students in the Reach program. We assessed the previous summer and adjusted the program offerings, schedule, and timeline. Jackie Price, Director of Student Outreach and Support, leads this initiative.
- In collaboration with Academic Affairs, the Division of Student Success has been actively focusing on WIU's recent receipt of a Rural Postsecondary and Economic Development (RPED) grant from the U.S. Department of Education. This $2.2 million award addresses equity gaps among rural students.

Our Outreach and Retention Office will continue to focus efforts through the Chicago College Compact grant this summer, implementing retreat experiences for students from Chicago Public Schools to experience Macomb and our campus before school starts in the fall.

Report No. 24.3/9 -- Quad Cities Campus Priorities, Strategies, and Highlights

Western Illinois University - Quad Cities Campus Highlights
Kristi Mindrup, Vice President of Quad Cities Campus Operations
Audrey Adamson, Executive Director of the Career Center and Quad Cities Outreach
March 2024

Guided by the Western Illinois University – Quad Cities (WIU-QC) Strategic Initiatives Plan, the following report illustrates activities that position the university to foster a high level of student engagement, that strategically position WIU as the Quad Cities regional comprehensive University and educational leader in the region and beyond, and that emphasize educational opportunity and engagement for students and for the broader Quad Cities region.

This report also provides an in-depth look at the efforts of WIU Center for Career Preparation and Employer Engagement. Led by Executive Director Audrey Adamson, and with dedicated career center staff, the center provides career focused opportunities for students that contribute to student retention efforts. Events, programs, and one on one appointments provide additional focus for students academically, while aligning with community, regional, and statewide efforts to enhance career preparation and pathways that extend from K-12, through the University experience, and on to life and employment after college.

Early Learning Center – Renovation and Operational Preparation

Planning efforts on the Bilingual Early Learning Center are coming to fruition this spring. Renovation of the leased Boys and Girls Club space adjacent to downtown Moline is underway. Modifications to the space will ensure a welcoming, operational learning environment that follows good practices in childcare and is also compliant with Department of Child and Family Services regulations.

Dr. Lindsay Meeker’s leadership, along with partnership with the School of Education, has guided this project from start to its near completion, and generated an outpouring of community interest and financial support. This project is an example of cross-university collaboration, including the time and talents of Ted Renner, Jeff Calhoun, Curtis Williams, Don Swearinger and many more. With external funding and a self-sustaining operational model, this high-impact activity will make a positive impact on the early learning needs of the community, will provide hands on learning opportunities for students, and will establish WIU as the leader in early learning education in our region, the state, and beyond. We look forward to celebrating a grand opening very soon.

Chemistry Lab – Welcome New Faculty, New Students, New Opportunities

Funded through a grant obtained through the Roy J. Carver Charitable Trust, the Quad Cities Campus chemistry lab was renovated and is now fully operational. The chemistry department welcomed chemistry professor Dr. Garima Mishra to campus, who quickly set up equipment, materials, and protocols all while preparing for the first-ever offering of CHEM 201 on the Quad Cities campus. This course is a required for Engineering students who previously left WIU to access the course at other institutions. The inaugural offering yielded 12 spring semester students. With earlier course promotion and predictable schedule rotation, the course promises to yield additional student enrollments for semesters to come.

Facilities Ted Renner, Don Swearinger and Penny Wickert were instrumental in planning, designing, working with contractors and assisting with classroom set up.

Quad Cities-based recruitment and engagement initiatives – Connecting Students to Macomb, QC, and Online

The Quad Cities based Admissions team creates numerous opportunities for area students to experience and learn about all that WIU has to offer on the Quad Cities campus. The team connects students to opportunities and information about programs offered in each of Western's locations and online. Career Center staff engage each group with a hands-on career pathways activity to connect the students' interests to WIU programs. During the past months, Cameron Ruiz and the admissions team hosted 12 high school group visits, including cohorts from Illinois located schools Rock Island, Geneseo, Alwood, Cambridge, United Township (East Moline), and the East Moline Education Center. Outreach also invited students from across the river, with Iowa students on campus from North Scott, Pleasant Valley, Bettendorf, Davenport Central and Central-Dewitt High Schools.

Four visits integrated hands on Engineering Open Houses where students engaged with WIU engineering faculty, peers who are members of the Academic Club for Engineering, and Quad Cities Student Services Director, Curtis Williams. Eight more group visits are scheduled for spring, and these events are on pace to exceed 2023 participation numbers (385) by an estimated 100 students.

WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #1. Action 1.a., Strategic Initiative #3. Action 1.

Quad Cities Student Services led ongoing efforts to build connections between student academic and social experiences, including:

WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #1. Action 7.

Counselor Education Outreach and Impact

In addition to the academic accomplishments of the excellent faculty in the Counselor Education program, the faculty also led impactful initiatives and partnerships to benefit students, schools, and the community. Dr. Haley Wikoff is a leader in affirming mental health counseling practices for LGBTQ+ clients, and has integrated this work into graduate student experiences and clinical placements. Western Illinois University Counseling is contributing to innovative services that empower individuals and ensure inclusive practices.

WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #1. Action 1.a., Action 2.a.

Museum Studies – Mentorship and Leadership

Dr. Heidi Lung submitted (March 1 deadline) Mentorship and Leadership at All Levels (MLAL), a multifaceted and collaborative program to increase museum career awareness and overcome financial barriers graduate students from diverse and underrepresented backgrounds face. Project activities will include 1) the creation of a Career Pathway Seminar and recruitment resources to familiarize students with museum career pathways; 2) opportunities to work side-by-side with museum professionals in the Quad City region through paid internships and assistantships; and 3) the development of a self-paced online learning website and mentorship group focused on increasing museum leadership competencies and building professional networks. WIU Museum Studies will work with the Iowa Museum Association to develop the MLAL online training. It will be made freely accessible to graduate students and museum professionals from small/mid-sized rural museums across the region.

WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #1 Action 1. a, WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #2 Action 1.b.

The MST 502 Museum Exhibitions course collaborates with Initiatives in the Accessibility Committee on the Sensory Project, featuring an inclusive website with a virtual sensorium. The virtual sensorium, skillfully developed by WIU-Quad Cities Museum Studies Faculty Angela McClanahan-Simmons, is designed to cater to online students, ensuring they can equally benefit from the initiatives. This innovative approach underscores the commitment to accessibility and inclusivity, extending the reach of our initiatives to all members of our diverse community. WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #1. Action 1.c

WIU Museum Studies hosted three program information sessions on Zoom in February. Over 20 students learned about the WIU Museum Studies program and got to talk with students currently in the program.

WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #3. Action 1

WIU Museum Studies graduate students engage in graduate assistantships and internships at Quad City partner museums and organizations:

- Bix Beiderbecke Museum, Davenport Iowa
- Butterworth Center and Deere Wiman House, Moline, IL
- Family Museum, Bettendorf, IA
- Figge Art Museum, Davenport, IA
- German American Heritage Center and Museum, Davenport, IA
- Putnam Museum and Science Center, Davenport, IA

WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #1. Action 5.a and 5.f

WIU Museum Studies is the key sponsor of the Iowa Museum Association 2024 Career Conversations Event, held on Zoom on April 11, 2024. During the Iowa Museum Association Career Conversation program, five panelists will share their educational paths, discuss the road to their current positions, explore the highs and lows of working in cultural institutions, and answer student questions. This event aims to highlight the diversity of paths in the museum field and some professionals' choices for their education and careers.

WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #1. Action 1.e

WIU Museum Studies and the Graduate Experience in Museum Studies (GEMS) student group will host an on-campus live stream event with pizza and snacks and opportunities to socialize with students from St. Ambrose University's art history department.

Environmental Science – Impactful Wetland and Land Use Research

Doctoral level research guided by the expertise of Dr. Roger Viadero contributes to regional understanding of our river and watershed environments and ecosystems. Community partnerships connect student research to the needs of the local Mississippi watershed community.

Vickie Livingston successfully defended her Ph.D. dissertation on “Trace Metal Partitioning in Environmental Compartments in Nahant Marsh, Davenport, IA.” Her work provides valuable insights into our understanding of the long-term durability of Superfund remediation as well as the influence of surrounding industrial land use.

Madison Davee successfully defended her MS thesis on modeling real-time water levels in a small wetland system. Her work provides a first approach to understanding and predicting the ways small, urban wetlands respond to rain storms of different intensities. The Quad Cities Conservation Alliance provided support for the sensor systems as well as access to a unique urban wetland system in the Quad Cities. ENVR researchers have since obtained funding from the Carver Family Trust to expand the number and capabilities of this sensor network.

Prof. Roger Viadero’s contributions in the field are recognized through local partnerships, and also nationally. Dr. Viadero was elected by the membership at large to serve on the Ecological Society of America's Board of Professional Certification.
WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #2. Action 1.e., 1.f.

WQPT-PBS – Educational Outreach, Multicultural and Local Programming

The Educational Outreach Department of WQPT PBS continues its regular weekly events in the community, including First Book classroom visits, Adult ESL and GED prep classes, and presentations to Spring Forward and Stepping Stones afterschool programs. Since January WQPT distributed almost 500 free books.

WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #2. Action 4.a,b,c,d.

A few months ago, we learned Dr. Henry Louis Gates Jr was releasing a sequel to THE BLACK CHURCH called GOSPEL, which focuses on the music of the church. Knowing the level of exceptional local talent in our churches, WQPT reached out to community partners and formed a committee that created The QC Gospel Celebration, a concert held on January 23 with over 700 people in attendance.

Through the generous support of the Adler Theatre Foundation and Royal Neighbors of America we are able to present a free live concert. Performers included soloist Ashley Dean, groups including Gospel Soul Revivers, Jerry Johnson and the Voices of the QC, soloist Dwayne Hodges, Olivet Baptist Male Chorus, Gospel Mission Temple Inspirational Choir and Pastor Sam Kyles and Vision! WQPT’s video crew recorded the concert, edited hour-long program that was broadcast on WQPT in February.

WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #1. Action 1.b, c.

As part of its commitment to feature local programming of interest to the Quad Cities region, WQPT PBS production is underway featuring a documentary on Wharton Field House (the old brickhouse) which will air during April 2024. Wharton Field House has been an integral part of the Quad Cities community for 100 years. It has been served as a venue for world famous musicians, politicians, professional sports teams and the Moline High School Maroons. Community interest in this program is high. WQPT has posted 1 Facebook post on 2/28/2024 and has over 150 shares in less than 24 hours. Community members are submitting stories and photos to be included in the upcoming program.

For more information, visit wqpt.org/wharton.

WQPT continues to receive generous support from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting with a Fiscal Year 2024 grant of $825,664. While membership revenue continues to remain strong, WQPT actively explores and pursues new avenues of funding.

WIU-QC Strategic Initiative #1. Action 1.c.

The WIU Center for Career Preparation and Employer Engagement continues to support students and alumni to create and achieve their career goals through active career planning and preparation. The center has made significant strides in improving targeted employer engagement, increasing collaboration with academic colleges and departments, and focusing on serving specific student populations. Leveraging the Quad Cities campus location, the Career Center has created intentional connections with employers and potential supporters to benefit all stakeholders.

Direct career preparation support:

- The Career Center provides a multitude of resources that students and alumni can access via in-person and virtual appointments and online tools, empowering them to navigate their career paths with confidence and success.
 - For the eighth straight semester the Career Center has continued to see an increase in the number of students and alumni that access these center resources.
 - As of March 1, over 250 one-on-one student appointments in Spring 2024 for resumes, interviewing, job searching, and more.
 - Big Interview, with interviewing lessons and AI support has seen over 100 new users this Spring, 1700 overall since launching three years ago.
 - Stepping Blocks, in partnership with CBT and a focus on graduate outcomes, has been integrated into student appointments and presentations.
 - Candid Career, a career video library, is available to students 24/7 and has had over 500 unique views this semester.

Academic partnerships:

- The Career Center has developed program engagement plans and actively promotes its resources to faculty, schools, and departments across the university. By fostering collaboration with academic partners, the Career Center ensures alignment between career preparation initiatives and academic curriculum, enhancing the overall student experience and preparing students for successful careers in their chosen fields.
 - The Career Center provides customized career information to students through faculty requested classroom presentations. As of March 1, over 30 of these have occurred in the Spring 2024 semester in Macomb, QC, and virtually.
 - The Career Center offers resume, cover letter, and interview assignment support to faculty. Students and faculty receive completed rubrics and feedback after required appointments. Over 75 students across 5 courses have been of part of the Spring 2024 program.
 - Faculty can create their own assignments with Big Interview, providing their students with valuable interview preparation practice connected to their field of study.

Career outreach:

- The Career Center has been actively engaged in promoting career readiness among students through tailored workshops offered to student organizations and outreach activities across the university. These events are accessible to a diverse range of students, addressing the specific needs and interests of our diverse student population.
 - Presentations are offered based on organizational needs – evenings, weekends, online. Over twenty student organization-requested events (academic orgs, Greek life, multicultural groups) have taken place in Spring 2024, bringing career awareness to our student leaders.

- Student Career Ambassadors are out on campus (Macomb and QC) daily, meeting students where they are at, providing career resources, and encouraging appointments and event attendance.

Employer Engagement:

- The Career Center has cultivated intentional connections with employers in the region. By highlighting the benefits of partnering with WIU and promoting opportunities for collaboration and engagement, the Career Center enhances its visibility and influence within the local business community, facilitating meaningful connections between students and employers.
 - The Career Center hosts/co-hosts/supports over fifteen annual career fairs providing students and alumni with opportunities to connect directly with representatives from a diverse range of industries and organizations.
 - Career fair employer involvement and student attendance has increased by over 50% in the last three years.
 - As part of the Illinois Board of Higher Education's (IBHE) Thriving Illinois plan, the WIU Career Center plays a pivotal role in responding to industry needs by aligning its programs and services with evolving workforce demands and connecting regional employers to academic departments to provide feedback for curricular alignment.

Quad Cities connection and outreach:

- The Quad Cities region serves as a strategic hub for connecting WIU students with employers. Such waiver shall include, but not be limited to: (i) any and all claims of unlawful discrimination, harassment, retaliation, or other alleged violations arising under federal, state, local, or other laws and regulations including, but not limited to, claims arising under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act; (ii) claims of wrongful discharge, tort, defamation, misrepresentation, fraud, detrimental reliance, breach of alleged contractual obligations, negligence, and violation of public policy; and (iii) claims for monetary damages or other personal recovery of relief, costs, expenses, and attorney fees of any kind. 8. Older Workers Benefit Protection Act. By signing this Agreement, Dr. Huang acknowledges and agrees that he is waiving any claim, known or unknown, that he has or may have had against the Released Parties for alleged age discrimination. In accordance with the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act of 1990, Dr. Huang is specifically advised that he has the following rights in connection with whether he knowingly and voluntarily agrees to be bound by this Agreement:
 - (a) Time to Consider the Agreement. Dr. Huang has twenty-one (21) days in which to decide whether to sign this Agreement. The Parties agree that the making of changes to this Agreement during that period, prior to the signing of the Agreement by both Parties, does not restart the 21-day consideration period, irrespective of whether the changes to the Agreement are material or immaterial.
 - (b) Consultation with an Attorney. Dr. Huang is specifically advised to consult an attorney of his choosing and at his own expense to ensure that he fully understands all of the terms of this Agreement and the rights he is waiving by signing it.
 - (c) Ability to Revoke the Agreement. Dr. Huang will have seven (7) calendar days after signing this Agreement to revoke this Agreement (“Revocation Period”). In order to revoke this Agreement, Dr. Huang must send written notice to: Office of the General Counsel, Western Illinois University, 1 University Circle, Macomb, IL 61455. To be effective, this notice of revocation must be received by counsel before the close of business (4:30 p.m., CST) on the seventh (7th) day after Dr. Huang signs this Agreement. If the seventh day falls on a weekend or other day the University is closed, the notice of revocation is effective if received by counsel by close of business (4:30 p.m., CST) on the first day the University is open following the seventh day.
9. Choice of Law and Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws of the state of Illinois without regard to any state’s conflict of laws provisions. Any action to enforce this Agreement shall be brought in the state of Illinois.
10. Severability. The releases provided for in this Agreement are to be construed broadly to apply to any and all claims that may be released by contract under applicable law. Should any portion of this Agreement be ruled unenforceable by a tribunal of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Agreement and the releases and covenant not to sue contained herein will remain in full force and effect as to any and all other claims.
11. Entire Agreement. When approved by the Board and executed by the Parties, this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the Parties. The Parties acknowledge and confirm that no other representation, promise, covenant, or agreement of any kind whatsoever has been made to cause them to execute this Agreement; and that all agreements and understandings between the Parties are embodied and expressed in this Agreement.

12. Voluntary Agreement. Dr. Huang represents and warrants that he has carefully read this Agreement, that he has had a full and complete opportunity to review and discuss this Agreement with an attorney, that he fully understands the contents of this Agreement and any rights that he may be waiving through the execution of this Agreement, and that he is signing this Agreement freely and voluntarily. Dr. Huang further represents and declares that, in executing this Agreement, he relied solely on his own judgment, belief and knowledge, and that he has not been influenced in any matter by any representations or statements made by any representatives of the University. Dr. Huang acknowledges that no representative of the University has made any promise, representation or warranty whatsoever, written or oral, as any inducement to enter this Agreement, except as expressly set forth within this Agreement.
13. Board Approval. This Agreement is subject to approval by the Board. If the Board does not approve this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed null and void.
