APPLICATION FORM INDIVIDUAL READINGS AND RESEARCH

This is a course under which qualified undergraduate students may do individual research or reading, guided by a professor, for 1 to 3 semester hours of credit. This course is repeatable up to a total of 3 semester hours. After student have earned a total of 3 semester hours, they can no longer take any more (e.g., a student may take 1 semester hour for three terms or three semester hours for one term and no more for a student's academic stay here).

TO REGISTER:

1. For Sociology 433, you must have completed at least 12 semester hours of sociology and permission of department chairperson; For Anthropology 490, you must gain permission of instructor and department chairperson.
2. You should have a 217 average or better in the sociology courses.
3. You must have something you want to do – a reading topic or a project. There is no class – any meetings with the professor are arranged between you and the professor.
4. You must find a professor under whom to work. Any professor in the department may guide work in individual reading and research, if he or she is teaching that term (that is, not on sabbatical leave).
5. BEFORE YOU REGISTER, complete this form, secure the professor's signature, and the signature of the chair of the department, from whom you will receive a permit to enroll sheet. This permit will allow you to enroll in the class at registration.
6. Your work and your grade will be determined by the professor who signed the application.
7. Remember this form MUST be returned to the department office where you will receive a permit to enroll so that you can register.
