“Since a democratic society repudiates the principle of external authority, it must find a substitute in voluntary disposition and interest; these can be created only by education.”

“Human history becomes more and more a race between education and catastrophe.”

—H.G. Wells (The Outline of History, 1920)

“The democratic form of government, a democratic way of life, presupposes free public education over a long period; it presupposes also an education for personal responsibility that too often is neglected.”

—Eleanor Roosevelt (Land Review Policy, 1942)
