A review by John von Rhein in the Chicago Tribune states that “Matthew Schlesinger wielded the ideal Monteverdi tenor: light, clear, technically solid and musically accomplished.” Matthew Schlesinger holds a Bachelors of Arts degree in Music education from Western Illinois University, and Masters in Music Education from Vandercook College of Music. He is proud to be in his 6th year as the Choral Director at Hoffman Estates High School, and is formerly the Choral Director at Plainfield High School, Central Campus. Matthew also continues to perform around the Chicago area with groups such as the Chicago Symphony Chorus (where he is currently the Tenor 1 Section Leader, has served as AGMA Delegate, and has had the opportunity to solo with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in Berlioz’s Romeo and Juliet and have to cover the role of Cassio in Verdi’s Otello and the Tenor Solos in Britten’s War Requiem), the Oriana Singers, Opera Potpourri and the Grant Park Symphony Chorus (where he currently serves as an AGMA representative). Even with all of these experiences, his greatest joy in life is spending time with his wife Melissa and his two daughters, Emily and Elyse.

Over the past five decades, the Hoffman Estates High School Concert Choir has established a tradition of excellence known throughout the community. The mission of the organization is to produce quality performances in a nurturing and cooperative atmosphere. The ultimate goal is to help each other to: enjoy positive and successful experiences at all ability levels, develop the skills necessary to become lifelong musicians, sing with a natural, free, and vibrant tone, appreciate a variety of musical styles and genres, perform in an entertaining and communicative manner, set the standard of excellence in behavior and performance, and create memories that will be cherished for a lifetime.

Aaron Young started teaching for the De Soto public school district in 2004. At De Soto he has taught at the junior high school for seven years, was associate director of the high school choirs for four years, and at the start of the 2011 school year he became the head choral director at De Soto High School. His high school and junior high school choirs have performed well at state organizational contests, and have enjoyed many successful performances while on tour to many out-of-state competitions. In May of 2012, his high school Concert Choir, took first place in their division and won the Esprit de Corps award at the Music in the Parks competition held at Dollywood in Gatlinburg, Tennessee. Most recently, in May of 2013, his high school Concert Choir competed at the Music in the Parks competition held at King’s Island in Mason, Ohio, and received a superior rating. Before beginning his teaching career he received his Bachelor of Science in Music Education from Quincy University, and his Master of Arts degree in Conducting from Western Illinois University. His professional affiliations include NAFME, MMEA, MCDA, and ACDA.

Outside of his professional interests he enjoys running, and coaching cross country, basketball, and baseball. He also enjoys spending time with his beautiful wife Jamie, and two children (with a third on the way in February); Nolan and Aila.

Melanie Butcher is in her ninth year as the director of choirs at Macomb High School. At MHS, she conducts five choirs: Mixed Chorus, Concert Choir, Madrigal Singers, Men's Ensemble, and Jazz Voices. Mrs. Butcher also conducts the 7th grade choir, 8th grade choir and the MJH Swing Choir at the Macomb Junior High School. Each year, her students participate in IGSMA and IHSA Solo and Ensemble Contest and Organization Contest receiving superior ratings. Mrs. Butcher received a B.A. degree in music education and a M.A. degree in choral conducting from Western Illinois University. Mrs. Butcher resides in Macomb with her husband, Joe, and their two sons, Nick (9 years old) and Andy (6 years old). She is a member of ACDA and MENC.

Dr. Jerry Myers is the Director of Choral Activities and Associate Professor at St. Louis Community College – Meramec where he serves also as Coordinator of Music. He was on the choral faculty for ten years at Washington and Lee University in Virginia, on the voice faculty of Southern Virginia University and conducted the Eurydice Orchestra of Roanoke. He holds a Bachelor of Music from Illinois State University, a Master of Arts in Music from Western Illinois University and the Doctor of Musical Arts in Choral Conducting from UNC – Greensboro.

The Meramec Chamber Singers was founded by Dr. Myers in 2009 shortly after his arrival at STLCC-Meramec. The ensemble is selected by audition from the membership of the Concert Choir. The Chamber Singers, along with the Voices of Magic, serve as ambassadors for the College and often perform on campus and throughout the community.

Dr. Myers' ensembles have premiered works with various artists including the Paul Winter Consort, John McCutcheon, Orchid Ensemble, and Barbara Higbie. In 2014, the Concert Choir will perform Duruflé's Requiem with the St. Louis Philharmonic.

Dr. Myers was twice the recipient of the Phi Theta Kappa Glaux Mentor Award and he has been recognized by the STLCC Board of Trustees on multiple occasions for his ensemble's accomplishments. He is a sought-after adjudicator, lecturer and clinician. His presentation Avoiding Destructive Interference: Maximizing the Choral Sound was featured at the ACDA Voices United Convention in Washington, D.C and the MCDA Conference. He led 2-Year College Repertoire Reading Sessions at ACDA Conferences in his capacity as Repertoire and Standards Chair for 2-Year Colleges for the Southwestern Division.

He and his wife Laura, a WIU Music Therapy graduate, have two daughters, Ella and Leanna. In addition to his conducting, he is a certified pet therapist and hospice volunteer with "Freckles".

Heather Zosel is Assistant Professor of Choral Music Education at Western Illinois University, where she directs the Concert Choir and Jazz Choir, and teaches Choral Methods, Conducting and Vocal Techniques. Dr. Zosel also supervises student teachers, directs the WIU Madrigal Dinner, and advises the Sigma Alpha Iota chapter. She has been invited to direct and adjudicate festivals throughout the state of Illinois, as well as in Iowa, Arizona, and Washington State.

Dr. Zosel holds a DMA in choral conducting from the University of Arizona where she studied under Bruce Chamberlain and Elizabeth Schauer. While at the UA, Dr. Zosel was Assistant Director of the University Community Chorus (UCC), and served as collegiate president of the American Choral Directors Association. Through her work with the UCC, she was awarded the Outstanding Graduate Teaching Assistant for the College of Fine Arts in 2011. She received both her MA in choral conducting and BM in music education from Washington State University, where she studied with Lori Wiest, and received the prestigious Presser Award for outstanding scholarship and musical ability. Dr. Zosel's dissertation research focuses on the a-cappella music of Herbert Howells.

Before receiving her doctorate, Dr. Zosel was Director of Choirs and Bands at Oroville High School, and conductor of the Okanogan Valley Orchestra Chorus, both in Washington State. She is active in choirs and musical theatre, and has served as chorus master, vocal coach and accompanist for several production companies in Washington State. Dr. Zosel is a member of the American Choral Director's Association and the National Association for Music Educators.

James Stegall, Professor of Music, is the 2013 Distinguished Faculty Lecturer at Western Illinois University. In addition to his role as Director of Choral Activities, he conducts the Western Illinois University Singers, Madrigal Singers and teaches graduate and undergraduate choral conducting and literature. He also serves on President Jack Thomas' Roundtable. Through juried application his University Singers have achieved significant recognition through state, regional and national convention performances including the Illinois Music Educators Association, the National Association for Music Education and the American Choral Directors Association. They have appeared on professional venues with the Dallas Brass, Kansas City Symphony, Peoria Symphony, and Phoenix Symphony. Additionally, Dr. Stegall has presented for the College Music Society, The International Conference on Arts and Humanities, The Phenomenon of Singing International Symposium, the National Association for Music Education and the American Choral Directors Association.

The Illinois Music Educators Association recognized Dr. Stegall's contributions in teaching with the Mary Hoffman Award of Excellence. At WIU he received the Outstanding Teacher in the College of Fine Arts Award, three Outstanding Student Organizational Advisor Awards, two Faculty Excellence Awards, four Professional Achievement Awards and also the Outstanding Music Alumnus Award from Stephen F. Austin State University.

On a personal note, James Stegall resides in Macomb, IL with his wife Erin, a middle school choral director and his ten-year old son, Evan, a nationally ranked USA swimmer.

WESTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

Our Vision

Western Illinois University will be the leader in educational quality, opportunity, and affordability among its peers.

Our Mission

By enacting our values and supporting the synergy between instruction, research, creativity, and service, Western Illinois University prepares a socially responsible, diverse student, faculty, and staff population to lead in the global society.

Our Values

Academic Excellence: Central to our history and tradition is the commitment to teaching, to the individual learner, and to active involvement in the teaching/learning process. Western Illinois University's highly qualified, diverse faculty promotes critical thinking, engaged learning, research, and creativity in a challenging, supportive learning community. We are committed to an academic environment that encourages lifelong development as learners, scholars, teachers, and mentors.

Educational Opportunity: Western Illinois University values educational opportunity and welcomes those who show promise and a willingness to work toward achieving shared educational goals. We are committed to providing accessible, high-quality educational programs and financial support for our students.

Personal Growth: Western Illinois University values the development of the whole person. We are committed to providing opportunities for personal growth in an environment that supports the development of wellness, ethical decision-making, and personal responsibility. With personal growth comes an environment and interpersonal dynamics that celebrate diversity, support internationalization of the curriculum, and encourage plurality of thought and perspective.

Social Responsibility: Western Illinois University is committed to equity, social justice, and diversity and will maintain the highest standards of integrity in our work with others. We serve as a resource for and stimulus to economic, educational, cultural, environmental, and community development in our region and well beyond.

SING ALONG CAROLS

O Christmas Tree

O Christmas Tree, O Christmas Tree!
Thou tree most fair and lovely!
O Christmas Tree, O Christmas Tree!
Thou tree most fair and lovely!

The sight of thee at Christmas tide
Spreads hope and gladness far and wide
O Christmas Tree, O Christmas Tree!
Thou tree most fair and lovely!

O Christmas Tree, O Christmas Tree!
Thou hast a wondrous message:
O Christmas Tree, O Christmas Tree!
Thou hast a wondrous message:

Thou dost proclaim the Savior's birth,
Good will to men and peace on earth.
O Christmas Tree, O Christmas Tree!
Thou hast a wondrous message.

Joy to the World

Joy to the world! The Lord has come:
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,

And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven, and heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the world! The Savior reigns:
Let men their songs employ,
While fields and floods,
rocks, hills and plains

Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

Deck the Hall

Deck the hall with boughs of holly,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Tis the season to be jolly,
Fa la la la la, la la la la
Don we now our gay apparel,
Fa la la, la la la, la la la
Troll the ancient Yule-tide carol,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

See the blazing Yule before us,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Strike the harp and join the chorus,
Fa la la la la, la la la la
Follow me in merry measure,
Fa la la, la la la, la la la
While I tell of Yule-tide treasure,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

SING ALONG CAROLS

Jingle Bells

Dashing through the snow
in a one horse open sleigh,
O'er the fields we go,
laughing all the way;
Bells on bobtail ring,
making spirits bright;
What fun it is to ride and sing
a sleighing song tonight!

Jingle Bells! Jingle Bells!
Jingle all the way!
Oh, what fun it is to ride
In a one horse open sleigh!

Jingle Bells! Jingle Bells!
Jingle all the way!
Oh, what fun it is to ride
In a one horse open sleigh!

Day or two ago
I thought I'd take a ride,
And soon Miss Fannie Bright
was seated by my side.
The horse was lean and lank,
misfortune seem'd his lot,
He got into a drifted bank,
and we, we, got upsot.

Jingle Bells! Jingle Bells!
Jingle all the way!
Oh, what fun it is to ride
In a one horse open sleigh!

Jingle Bells! Jingle Bells!
Jingle all the way!
Oh, what fun it is to ride
In a one horse open sleigh!

Angels we Have Heard on High

Angels we have heard on high,
Sweetly singing o'er the plains.
And the mountains in reply,
Echoing their joyous strains.

Gloria
In excelsis Deo
Gloria
In excelsis Deo

Shepherds, why this jubilee?
Why your joyous strains prolong?
What the gladsome tidings be,
Which inspire your heavenly song?
