Conductor Biography

James Stegall, Professor of Music, is Director of Choral Activities at Western Illinois University and the 2013 Distinguished Faculty Lecturer. He received his DMA in Conducting from the University of Missouri – Kansas City, Conservatory of Music. Dr. Stegall conducts the Western Illinois University Singers, Madrigal Singers and teaches graduate and undergraduate choral conducting and literature. Through juried application his University Singers have achieved significant recognition through state, regional and national convention performances including the Illinois Music Educators Association, the National Association for Music Education and the American Choral Directors Association. They have appeared on professional venues with the Dallas Brass, Kansas City Symphony, Peoria Symphony, and Phoenix Symphony. Additionally, Dr. Stegall has presented for the College Music Society, The International Conference on Arts and Humanities, The Phenomenon of Singing International Symposium, the National Association for Music Education and the American Choral Directors Association.

The Illinois Music Educators Association recognized Dr. Stegall's contributions in teaching with the Mary Hoffman Award of Excellence. At WIU he received the Outstanding Teacher in the College of Fine Arts Award, three Outstanding Student Organizational Advisor Awards, two Faculty Excellence Awards, four Professional Achievement Awards and also the Outstanding Music Alumnus Award from Stephen F. Austin State University.

Dr. Stegall makes frequent appearances as a guest conductor, All-State clinician and lecturer on vocal production and choral conducting throughout the country. He is member of the College Music Society, American Choral Directors Association, National Collegiate Choral Organization, National Association for Music Education, the Illinois Music Educators Association and is a founding member of Southwest Liederkrantz, a scholarly gathering of conductors from around the nation.

Heather Zosel, Assistant Professor of Choral Music Education at Western Illinois University, holds a DMA in choral conducting at the University of Arizona, where she studied under Bruce Chamberlain and Elizabeth Schauer. While at the UA, Dr. Zosel was Assistant Director of the University Community Chorus, and served as collegiate president of the American Choral Directors Association. She sang in the Arizona Choir, Tucson Symphony Orchestra Chorus, Musica Sonora, Tucson Chamber Artists, and Coro, and has been featured in performances of Mozart's Vesperae solennes de Confessore, Handel's Messiah and Bach's St. John Passion.

Dr. Zosel holds a BM in music education and an MA in choral conducting, both from Washington State University, where she studied under Lori Wiest. She sang in the Washington State University Madrigal Singers and Concert Choir; performed in opera and musical theatre choruses for productions of Die Fledermaus, She Loves Me, Carmen and High Society; and also received the prestigious Presser Award for outstanding scholarship and musical ability.

Dr. Zosel recently completed a one-year contract at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where she was Interim Director of Choral Activities. Before receiving her doctorate, she served as Director of Choirs and Bands at Oroville High School, and conductor of the Okanogan Valley Orchestra Chorus, both in Washington State. She is active in musical theatre and has served as chorus master, vocal coach and accompanist for three production companies in the Okanogan Valley area, for shows including Grease, Bye Bye Birdie, and Cats.

JUNIOR HIGH VOCAL/CHORAL CAMP

Sunday, June 23-Saturday, June 29

SENIOR HIGH VOCAL/CHORAL CAMP

Sunday, June 16-Saturday, June 22

“Study with the Masters” at Western Illinois University this summer with Camp Director Brandon Williams, a Vocal Music and Music Through Technology Teacher from St. Louis, Missouri. The camp is designed to encourage personal growth and musicianship skills through group activities. Our master teachers help students build a foundation of fundamental skills in music reading, vocal production, stage presence, diction, and basic musicianship. Students can also attend elective classes in conducting, composition, and what to listen for in music.

Recording Policy

The use of unauthorized recording devices is strictly prohibited.

Concert Etiquette

So that others around you may enjoy
the performance without distraction,
we ask that you refrain from:

speaking audibly;
taking flash photographs;
entering or leaving the hall unnecessarily;
or any other aural or visual distractions.

Thank you.
