

Change Our Language, Change Our Politics

Ted Williams III
Union Sandburg Theater
Tuesday, January 21
6:00 p.m.

The program is free and open to all.

To build a stronger community, a community filled with open dialogue and freedom of expression, we have invited Ted Williams III to campus as part of the National Day of Racial Healing at WIU.

Guest speaker Ted Williams III, an experienced actor, speaker, facilitator, host, and former candidate for public office will change the way we discuss sensitive subjects and create a better way to show respect and encourage honest dialogue whether discussing politics, religion, race, etc. We can do better and Mr. Williams though an on-stage live stage performance will show us how.

Road Scholars Speakers travel across Illinois to bring art, culture, history, and contemporary social issues to life. They share their passion and expertise about literature, philosophy, theater, local history, film, music, politics, and more. The Road Scholars Speakers Bureau is made possible by a grant from the Illinois Humanities.

Sponsored by Illinois Humanities Road Scholars Speakers Bureau/ WIU Justice, Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity Office / WIU POLS302: Introduction to Public Policy / WIU Veterans Resource Center/ WIU Theatre and Dance

Western Illinois
University