

SMS

2009-2

Master Plan for Cedar Glen Nature Preserve, Hancock County, Illinois

.1 cubic feet

(accession A09-004)

fl. 1 of 1

Report approved by the Nature Conservancy and the Chairman of the Illinois Nature Preserves Commission, dated January 1985. Report details the information and context of the preserve, general considerations, and management plans for the property. Cedar Glen, just outside Warsaw, IL, according to the Nature Conservancy is “owned and managed cooperatively by the Conservancy, the Illinois Department of Natural Resources and Western Illinois University (WTU). Local volunteers assist in providing stewardship for the preserve. During the spring and summer months, WTU conducts biology classes and scientific studies at the preserve.”