Winners will be announced following the completion of the brisket round.

Containers for a blind judging will be provided. No greenery or extra sauce is allowed.

The container shall not be marked in any way so as to make the container unique or identifiable. Aluminum foil, toothpicks, skewers, foreign material, and/or stuffing are prohibited in the container. Marked entries or containers with the above listed material will receive a one (1) in all criteria from all Judges and disqualified. Meat shall not be sculptured, branded or presented in a way to make it identifiable. Rosettes of meat slices are not allowed. Violations of this rule will be scored a one (1) on all criteria by all six judges.

Each contestant must submit six (6) portions of meat in the provided container. Brisket may be submitted chopped, pulled, sliced, or diced as the cook sees fit, as long as there is enough for six (6) judges. Ribs shall be turned in bone-in. Judges may not cut, slice, or shake apart to separate pieces. If there is not enough meat for each judge to sample, the shorted judge(s) will score a one (1) on all criteria, and the judges having samples will change the appearance score to one (1) as a penalty.

A "People's Choice" award will also be given based on the overall votes from the public. Your People's Choice item is your own novelty item. Bring your best recipe to win over the crowd. You may use brisket or ribs for your people's choice award however it must be ready to serve the masses at 10:30 a.m. You do not need to compete in the People's Choice if you do not wish.
